

Sub-plate Systems

A sub-plate system normally comprises of a collection of control products on a single plate. This plate is normally designed to be an exact fit within the body of the customers machine.

Features and benefits:

- ◆ Simple installation
- ◆ Cost effective
- ◆ Pre-piped components save installation time
- ◆ Simple to order
- ◆ Reduced interconnecting pipework improves overall reliability

Sub-plate system for pharmaceutical machine

Customised Products

The unit shown illustrates KV's ability to integrate a number of standard and modified components into a single 'solutions' package.

Features and benefits:

- ◆ Minimal interconnecting pipework
- ◆ Simplified ordering
- ◆ Aesthetically attractive
- ◆ Built to exact customer specifications

Axle raising and lowering control unit